Congratulations, Neil Aitchison!

By Waldo Redekop, editor

I received a news release, titled Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal awarded to Drayton Entertainment director of development, D. Neil Aitchison, dated November 15, 2002, from which I have excerpted the following.

Aitchison, the director of development for Drayton Entertainment and star of the St. Jacobs Schoolhouse Theatre smash Canadian Loonie, received the Gold Jubilee Medal on November 14 during an exclusive reception at the Oak Room of the Wallper Terrace Hotel.

"I am honoured by this," said Aitchison. "It was unexpected and I feel privileged to be recognized for work that I enjoy doing."

"Everyone at Drayton Entertainment is thrilled for Neil," said Alex Mustakas, artistic director. "It's great to see someone recognized for being everything that Canadians are known for — kind, sincere, generous and incredibly funny."

Those honoured with the Queen's Golden Jubilee Medal must be Canadian Citizens and have made significant contributions to Canada, or to a particular province, territory, region or community or have made an outstanding achievement abroad that brings credit to Canada. The honour was created to mark the 50th Anniversary of the accession to the throne by Her Royal Highness, Queen Elizabeth II. *
