

In Memoriam

JIM BEETHAM 1924-2005

By Chris, Dave and Janis Beetham

It is with great sadness that we announce the Passing of our father, Jim Beetham, on Tuesday, October 11, 2005, at Southlake Hospital in Newmarket.

He was in his 81st year. For any of you that don't know him, he has been a Barbershopper since 1959, beginning with the Scarborough Dukes of Harmony from about 1959-1985.

He also was a member of the Markham Men of Harmony and a member of the Newmarket Chorus. Jim was also a member of the Suburbanaires Seniors Chorus to the present.

You can't put it into words, how you feel during a time like this, all you can do is, thank God that we were able to share in the years that were given and don't take life or God for granted.

A celebration service was held at the Westminster United Church in Whitby on Saturday, October 15, 2005.

Memorial donations can be made to Harmonize for Speech or the charity of your choice. ✻

BOB FAIR 1922-2005

By Gerard Byrne

One of Peterborough Chapter's longtime members, Bob Fair, passed away September 14, 2005. Bob's brother, George, is also a member of our chapter, and a former Duke.

The funeral took place at the Mackey Funeral Home in Lindsay on September 16, 2005. ✻

JOHN LAUGHLIN 1915-2005

By Don Coghlin

The Mount Forest Chapter is saddened by the death of John Laughlin on October 25, 2005 in his 91st year. John was instrumental in the formation of the Mount Forest Harmonaries 35 years ago. He was the charter president and was active in the chapter up until this past spring.

The Mount Forest Chapter sang at his funeral at the United Church in Mount Forest on Saturday morning, October 29, 2005. Johnny, as he was known by the members and friends, will be missed for all his hard work and dedication over his 35-years of service. ✻
